

Amaris Counseling LLC Promise Fund

Since its founding, Amaris Counseling has kept a commitment to never turn away a person because of an inability to pay for services. For each paid session, $5 is donated to our Promise Fund which is used to cover the cost of sessions for those in need.

The Promise Fund is available on a limited basis to individuals, couples, and families that are in need of services.

Who is eligible for the Promise Fund?

Clients who do not have insurance, cannot afford a reduced rate with a licensed clinician, or are unable to meet with a clinical intern

How are Promise Funds Assigned?

Admin requests you to take on a client in need
An existing client loses insurance/employment and needs continued treatment

How does the Promise Fund work?

Applications are submitted via the website for approval
If approved, client is given 8 or 12 sessions

If client can pay a $20 copay, client will receive 12 sessions
If client is not able to pay, client will receive 8 sessions

Can a Promise Fund client be seen after their sessions are complete?

Yes, client must discuss this and confirm with their therapist as well as submit a new Promise Fund application
